Cain killed his brother. Moses killed the Egyptian, broke the tablets with the Ten Commandments and struck the well twice instead of once. Yet he is considered a man of faith. How can we be angry and not sin? How can our mastery of anger enable us to be Christ-like?

This Sunday we look at “Practical Pathways to Christlikeness when Anger Strikes”. Come join us at 6pm

MEMBER IN MINISTRY

Ruth Marufu

- To grow spiritually and serve the Lord diligently.
- Pray for knowledge and wisdom.
- Pray for true and meaningful friendships. Pray for my family to know God’s love, strength and comfort following my Uncle’s death on Monday.

MINISTRY IN FOCUS

Young Ladies

- Pray for the revival of the ministry.
- For growth and maturity in Christ.
- For more young girls in the church to join.
- For the girls to live by the word even in these hard economic times.

CHURCH FAMILY

- ☞ Pray for the church to be spirit-led in choosing leaders.
- ☞ Lets pray for effective follow through on decisions made at the Church Quarterly Meeting of Wednesday 30 January 2019.
- ☞ Faith Mangwende lost a relative, Mr. Tafadzwa Sabau, who died in a car accident in SA. Lets pray for the repatriation of body and funeral arrangements in Kwekwe.
- ☞ We thank God for healing in Austin Kapfunde and great improvement in Mbuya Chirambadare.
- ☞ We pray for these people’s parents who are not well: Constance Zvobgo, Jerry Pillay, Saru Mboweni, George Chikoti, Caroline Chinembiri.
